

CARE CERTIFICATE

Eden Training Academy
Online Training

Everyone starting work in the health or social care sector should complete the Care Certificate. This course has been designed to support employees and learners as they undertake the Care Certificate as part of their staff induction programme. It has also received official endorsement from Skills for Care. It is also mapped to units on the Qualification and Credit Framework (QCF) relating to health and social care qualifications, meaning learners can use the standards they have completed as recognised prior learning.

Areas covered

All 15 standards of the Care Certificate.

Learners can complete the standards that are specific to their role.

Who is it aimed at?

Anyone starting work in the health or social care sector.
